PLAYGROUND DONATION HELPS PLAY AT APSN KATONG SCHOOL

By Jason Sim

PLAYPOINT have donated a new playground equipment to APSN Katong School (Association for Persons with Special Needs) as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility Program.

APSN is a voluntary welfare organization catering to persons with mild intellectual disability

Mr Jason Sim, Managing Director of PLAYPOINT said, 'As part of our Playpoint Gives Back initiatives, we are pleased to partner with APSN on their mission to educate persons with mild intellectual disabilities. If our play set can develop children in their motor and social skills, we have given meaning to our values of "giving every child a chance to play and enjoy all the benefits that come along with it"

We hope that by providing these amazing equipment, we can bring a smile to the faces of children.

Mrs Choo Swee Gek Principal of APSN Katong School said, "The playground structures provide the children with play opportunities in the school. We believe that this will encourage cooperative and social play as well as physical activity, which together will positively improve attitude, discipline, behaviour and creativity in our children. We thank PLAYPOINT for their gift to the children of Katong School."

PLAYPOINT is the leading regional playground specialist designing playgrounds for iconic developments in Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam and Philippines.
